

STEPS IN DEVELOPING A PLAY STATEMENT OR POLICY

1 Do some ground work - read article 31 of the UNCRC and local play policies.

2 Find out about play in your setting - ask children, families and staff.

3 Use information that exists in your organisation, such as evaluation and play assessment activities.

4 What are the important things you want to say?

5 Bring it together. A working group may be helpful

6 Possible headings

Our vision for play, aims and principles

What is play?

What else?

Why support children's play?

7 Consider how to present and share your statement.
